

SNAPSHOT | Slashing Support for Higher Education

2015 Budget for a Better Minnesota

The House GOP proposal would cut $53 million from the Minnesota State Grant Program – making higher education more expensive for an estimated 80,000 to 85,000 students. Students could see their tuition burdens increase by an average $250 to $659 each year

By contrast, Governor Dayton's budget proposal would make a significant investment in the State Grant Program – allowing an additional 7,500 students to receive grants, and increasing the amount of financial assistance for 93,000 students statewide. Eligible students would receive an average State Grant increase of $352, with some getting up to $1,800 more.
